

Audition Packet

Thank you for auditioning for the Sounds Choir production of the Hunchback of Notre Dame! This is a concert style production, meaning the chorus and orchestra will be on the stage the entire run of the show. Soloists will take turns singing at the mics with limited props and costumes. All soloists will be singing in the chorus when they are not soloing. We are excited to be able to truly highlight the beautiful music of this show through this style of production.
